I have been inspired by your company's mission for a while and would welcome the opportunity to contribute to continued growth and success. After completing a Bachelor of Business in Marketing from Lebanese American University, I am confident that my academic history and drive for creative solutions will bring a positive new facet to your team. The attached resume details my extensive experience and training. If you choose to interview and hire me, you will not be disappointed.

Inspired by innovation, I thrive on experimenting with different concepts and have been commended for inspiring and developing unique and thought-provoking ideas. I have cultivated customer behavior, time management and communication skills through a range of practical experience. These strengths, combined with my passion for the industry have created a strong foundation to meet the needs of your company. I strive to contribute to an energetic and team-driven work culture.

I am artistic and dependable but also aim to bring a cheerful and enthusiastic attitude to every project. Bringing strengths in teamwork, motivation and communication, I know that my creative abilities will serve to bring a valuable addition to your organization. I look forward to the opportunity to create and grow as your new (member-employee) and look forward to further discussing the role. I'd be happy to provide greater detail about my skills and experience during an interview. Please call me at your earliest convenience.

Best Regards
Reina Zaher
